HYSTERY BERE (2) was pulled-up in a competitive Class Two handicap chase at Uttoxeter during May and though his profile is patchy it might be the time to catch him. Cheekpieces replace his usually-worn blinkers and off a lower mark down in grade can be considered. Further progress is expected and the Alexandra Dunn trained four-year-old may come out on top off the same mark. HARRYS HOPE (7) forged clear providing a successful chase debut at Southwell a week ago. The Ben Pauling trained mare may have plenty more to offer tackling fences and can make the most of being 2kg well-in under the penalty. Top-weight SHERBORNE (1) has not been seen for seven months. Was a good second in a Class Four handicap chase at Wincanton last start and warrants respect down in grade. Switching to top trainer Nicky Henderson saw IN THE AIR (3) winning at Southwell (4100m) a week ago. The Freddie Gordon claim negates some of the 3.5kg penalty he carries and a repeat success is anticipated. Bottom weight ASIAN SPICE (9) goes well on decent ground. This previous course winner cannot be ignored delivering first start since finishing second attempting a handicap hurdle at Stratford in May. With a G1-placing WAR LORD (1) is too well-handicapped to ignore in this grade. GUSTOSO (5) finished third in a novices handicap hurdle at Perth during April and may get involved returning to action.
