THISISWHATITMEANS (15) ran a good race when second in his first run as a gelding here over this trip. He even should have finished closer to the winner that day as shied away from the crop in the closing stages. He would have come on from the run and if kept on a straight line, he can go one better. DYNALLEY (3) produced a promising debut effort here over this distance. He was heavily supported in the markets that day which suggests that he was showing good work at home. He will improve from that effort and is the main threat to the top selection. YANNAKIS (9) has produced two good third place finishes on this course. He is a progressive type and shouldn't be a maiden much longer. Include in all combinations. SWEEPER KEEPER (8) finished fifth in the same race as the second selection on debut and has the scope to improve with further racing. If he can get a soft run early on then he should be hitting the line strongly. Don't leave him out of any calculations.

CUE THE REBEL (10) ran a good race on debut over this distance at Vaal. She raced greenly that day but would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected, she should take a power of beating. ARVERNI PRINCESS (6) may not have seen out the 1500m last time. Her penultimate run when third here over this shorter distance catches the eye and a repeat of that effort has her in the finish here. Each-way. PRINCESS ARLOWE (2) was not far behind the second selection in sixth place last time out. She tries the blinkers for the first time which should keep her mind on the task at hand and she is well worth a second look. ZARIYAH (11) ran a fair race on debut over 1000m on this course. She has plenty of scope to improve and should also relish the step up in distance for this assignment. Include in all multiples.

FREEDOM SQUARE (11) showed good improvement when third in a moderate lineup over this distance at Vaal last start. She returns from a spell in which time she would have strengthened up. She is a progressive type and should be hard to beat in this field. SUMIKO (5) would have learned a lot from her debut effort over this distance at Greyville. It must be noted that multiple horses from that form line have come out and won since and with the natural improvement that is expected second up she should be right in the finish. APPROACHABLE LASS (2) is better than her last start as she pulled afterward in a distressed state. Her recent spell would have done her the world of good and if she is not in need of the run, she is capable of bouncing back into the placings here. KYNISKA (7) is an experienced maiden performer that won't be far away and is definitely worth including into all first-four combinations.

VAN MEIJEL (10) was not beaten far on debut over this distance at Turffontein. He raced greenly that day but the manner in which he stayed on at the finish was encouraging. He would have come on from the run and with the natural improvement that is expected, he should be the one to beat in this field. BRISTOL HERCULES (8) is better than his last start when racing out of his grade. He ran a decent race on debut over 1200m and the extra furlong here looks ideal. Stick with him. GIVE US A SMILE (7) did a few things wrong last start and did well to finish where he did. Top hoop S'manga Khumalo takes over the reins and he is open to plenty of improvement. Each-way value. DOIN' TIME (2) should have finished closer to the winner last time out but he hung in late. The form from his last start has been franked and he is one to include into all multiples at some value.

PONTE PIETRA (1) has won his last two starts with ease. The manner in which he finished off his last start suggests that he will not have any issues with the extra furlong on offer. He has loads of ability and should cope with the class rise here. On top. CAPE EAGLE (4) ran a fair race in Grade Three level last start. That form has since been franked and back in this company he should be hard to beat. AIRWAYS LAW (2) has needed both his runs back from a spell and will be at peak fitness today. His best form is good enough to see him winning this. Watch closely. BOUNDLESS BASH (3) returns from a decent spell that would have done him the world of good. He has won once and finished second once from as many starts on this course and if not in need of the run, he can run into the money. Check the markets for a positive lead.

FASHIONIGMA (6) stuck on gamely to finish third last start in a similar field. She is a better horse on the turf and from her mid-field draw, she can break through for a deserved win. SATURN MOON (4) won a good race in her last start over 1600m on the polytrack when beating the top selection. If she can cope with the extra weight she can repeat the dose. MYSTERIOUS GIRL (3) was not disgraced when fifth in a better field last start. It must be noted that the form of that race has since been franked and she will also be peaking third up. Hard to beat. MANIC MONDAY (8) should have finished closer to the winner last time as she was held up at a vital time in the home straight. Her only victory came on this course and with luck in running, she should be right there at the finish. Each-way.

PALM BREEZE (7) finished a game runner-up last time out. She has won once, finished second once and third once from four starts here over this distance. She is likely to race on the speed and she may be hard to peg back in the run down to the line. ASPOESTERTJIE (3) was given a gun ride when beating the top selection last start. She received the minimum weight penalty for that victory and can repeat the dose. CINNAMON BLUSH (9) finished third in the same race as the top two selections and meets them better off at the weights today. Another honest effort can be expected. POURSOMESUGARONME (8) fought on gamely when third over 1000m on this course last time out. She is at her best over this distance and with S'manga Khumalo retaining the ride, she should be very competitive. Stick with her.

ABERDEEN (8) did not handle the softer track conditions last time out but still wasn't far from the winner. He should be suited over the mile and if finding his best form, he is capable of taking this race out. POWER STAR (4) finished midfield in the same race as the top selection after being in good form prior. He is worth another chance. WARHAWK BOMBER (5) ran a good race when third over 1400m on the polytrack last time. He will be at home over the mile and with Rachel Venniker claiming a kilo and a half off his back, he should be involved in the fight to the finish. JOSEPHINE'S PRIDE (6) is better than his last start when racing out of his grade. His debut effort when second over 1400m on the polytrack, catches the eye and he could have the last say.
