OPERA WAVE (2) looks the one to beat following a narrow success at Southwell (2200m) in September. The David Simcock trained contender is raised 3kg for that win but she remains unexposed and ought to have plenty more to offer. LORD NORMANDY (1) was disappointing when last seen eighth of nine at Wolverhampton during January. Provided a good second over the same course and distance in December and now returns off a 1kg lower mark. Seems to be the one most likely to chase the main selection home with MADELEINE MOONSHOT (3) unlikely to land a blow having shown very little in her four outings to date.

The Charlie Appleby team have been in fine form of late and MAN OF VISION (10) is considered. This well-bred son of Dubawi followed home a useful performer when second over 1400m at Yarmouth in May. Could find plenty of improvement for the first-time tongue-tie. MOVING SHADOW (1) created a nice impression winning first time out at Leicester in September and must be respected under the penalty. Similar comments apply to the John and Thady Gosden-trained YAZIN (2) who picked up well to score over 1400m at Redcar second time out. PRINCLING (11) also warrants major consideration following a promising debut second at Kempton.

HK FOURTEEN (1) took his record to four from twelve on the turf with a comfortable success in a 1000m Bath handicap during September. Trained by Tony Carroll and seemingly can take another step forward in cheekpieces. May follow-up off a 3.5kg higher mark. PARISIAC (6) might prove the main danger having enjoyed this journey at Musselburgh last time out. Won his sole outing over course and distance and rates a major player with Jamie Spencer booked. GOLD STAR HERO (2) finished runner-up at Lingfield AW last time. Could be in the mix racing off an unchanged mark. THUNDER STAR (10) rounds out the shortlist.

BIRDCALL (3) impressed producing a 4L winning debut over 1000m at Nottingham in October. The Ollie Sangster trained filly may continue to progress following that success and it wouldn't surprise were she to prove being up to this level. Leading chance. SPICY MARG (15) warrants consideration in this grade having finished a solid fourth tackling the track and trip G3 Cornwallis Stakes last time out. Dropping in journey and grade makes GOLDEN PALACE (10) a major player following her decent sixth-place finish in the 1200m G1 Cheveley Park Stakes at this venue. Could be thereabouts. Bottom weight PLAY ME (12) was by no means disgraced when fourth tackling this trip at Brighton last month. The Jim Boyle trained three-year-old was a good runner-up off this mark at Epsom prior and will have no problem handling the undulations of this track. KOKANEE (2) brings obvious claims having delivered another solid race in defeat when fourth over this distance at Pontefract. Market strength behind MCKENNA (3) would be interesting providing his first start for new connections since his narrow win over 1400m at Newcastle 175 days back. Each-way claims go the way of MOUNT KING (9) who shaped better than the bare result when beaten 3.5L seventh at Redcar last time.

MC'TED (3) has been completely revitalized by changing to the Martin Dunne stable. He arrives having completed a hat-trick with a facile 5L win over 1700m at Wolverhampton last time out and might have what it takes to replicate under a 2kg penalty. HUGGABLE (4) finished runner-up tackling 2000m past two starts. In the mix under a promising young apprentice who takes off 3.5kg.
