This could be between the two Newmarket raiders GULF LEGEND (2) and EXTRA BEAT (4). Preference is for the former with the James Ferguson trained son of Dubawi doing little wrong in three outings to date. May go one better than he did at Haydock recently now switching to handicaps. The latter made a winning handicap debut over 2000m at the same venue and will appreciate going further up in trip. SWORDSTICK (5) ran well finishing third at Chester. Might also do well up in journey off the same mark. TRYFAN (6) is next on the shortlist.

Top-weight RAINYNITEINGEORGIA (1) produced a nice effort managing third on handicap debut at Goodwood in May. That outing followed an absence of 262 days and with that run under her belt looks the one to beat revisiting AW. STASH THE CASH (10) posted a good effort when third at Leicester (1000m) last-time-out. In the mix. It would not surprise were BRUMMELL (9) to bounce back returning to 1000m off a more workable rating. TICKTYBOO (4) might be worth noting from an each-way perspective.

WAFEI (6) represents a top yard. Shaped well on seasonal return when 4.5L fourth contesting a 2000m maiden at Windsor toward the end of April. Open to further progress after just three starts. Finds ideal opportunity to shed the maiden tag. Top selection. ROYAL COLLEGE (3) is a son of Wootton Bassett from the Listed winning mare Victoria College. Represents a good yard. Profiles well on paper. TWIN EARTH (1) showed limited ability attempting jumpers flat races before two flat efforts including an improved fourth in a 1600m maiden at Leicester. Holds claims. THOMAS G (5) rates next best.

CLEAR STORM (4) found success by a head in this handicap grade at Nottingham over 2000m before a 1.75L fifth contesting a six runner 2000m handicap at Chelmsford City AW earlier this month. Could improve further racing for a top trainer and jockey. Leading player. PURPLE GOWN (2) took a step forward on seasonal and flat return when a nose winner of a course and distance handicap last week. Continues among similar company. Big chance. REYAADAH STAR (3) caught the eye at Kempton AW three runs back securing a 7L victory in a 2200m maiden. Produced two fair efforts since. May go well. KINEMATICA (5) might make the frame.
