CARAMAY (4) maintains consistent form with three wins and three placings from six runs. Not disgraced when 5L third at Southwell ten days ago and with course and distance form rates a leading contender. KINGMONT (3) struggled finishing seventh in a higher-class Lingfield handicap. First-time visor might bring out further ability. Not to be discounted. ELLEXIS (1) rounds out the shortlist.

FOREVER PROUD (3) found success over course and distance by 1L adding to a 0.75L second before and a neck win at Chelmsford three starts back. Can overcome a wide draw and rates the main pick. BOJEE GOLD (7) also won tackling track and trip beating the top selection. Carries less weight than his main rival and could achieve a quickfire double. Dangerous. RAVENGLASS (1) went close previously at this venue contesting a 1400m handicap and with a useful claimer on board is a definite contender.
