JEDHI KNIGHT (3) got off the mark this time last year when his second-placed finish was later upgraded following interference. Since found the frame four times from eight starts over a variety of distances. Managed to keep on for a 1.75L second of eleven effort under David Nolan at Pontefract latest. Major player third-up. FALAISE BLANC (8) arrives off the back of consecutive seconds at Hamilton and this venue. Climbs in trip and rates an obvious danger. SOPHIESTICATE (4) is three from six at the track and a must for the shortlist while multi-code winner GEMINI MAN (2) boasts four victories at this level and commands respect.

INSPIRING SPEECHES (4) only managed to place once past five attempts which was a third on penultimate start in a handicap at Beverley. Unable to follow up when fourth over course and distance. Can bounce back. ROGERS DREAM (6) failed to make the frame six most recent appearances. Missed the placings when fourth contesting a handicap at Beverley and could be thereabouts. MILLBUIE (5) lost out by a short-neck when third at Ayr two runs ago before a disappointing seventh at the same venue. Expected to challenge. TIBERIO FORCE (7) needs to display improvement after failing to make the frame in six previous outings.

NO NEWS (6) finished runner-up on most recent appearance contesting a handicap at Wolverhampton providing second start this season. May go one better. UNCLE SAM (8) placed second at Southwell AW on penultimate attempt then followed up with a disappointing effort finishing sixth in a handicap at Thirsk last month. Holds winning course and distance form. Might bounce back. RIDGEMASTER (7) failed to turn two placings into a win when seventh tackling a track and trip handicap last time. Top-three at Ripon and Ayr prior. Will be thereabouts. DESERT MASTER (3) is not discounted holding winning form at this venue.
