HOKEAMI (1) dominated with a 9L victory thirteen days ago at Sedgefield making it two from four with fences. Key player despite climbing in the weights. Bidding for a hat-trick ENSEL DU PERCHE (7) reappears from a long break and remains realistically treated on figures. Respect racing first-up. INGENNIO (5) has twice made the frame over course and distance. Fresh from a wind operation he will be looking to improve on his third placed effort at Newcastle last month. FERRYBRIDGE (6) holds solid each-way chances.

Point-to-point winner LIGHTENING MAHLER (1) made a successful start to her professional career with a nice 3L triumph at Hereford in January. Disappointed next time at Warwick and since received wind surgery. Set to bounce back with a big run. MOONLIT POTTER (2) shed her maiden status with a narrow victory at Lingfield beating BLUELLA BRESIL (3) by a nose. The latter now enjoys a swing in weights and could easily reverse form. LOVE OF NEYMORE (6) looks best of the rest. Shortlist.

Stepping up to 2000m bodes well for CHIEFMAN (1) given what was shown in three outings to date. The Archie Watson trained son of Cracksman went well when third over 1600m here in September. Can make a successful handicap debut. Although BRADMAN (2) doesn't appear to have much in hand over the handicapper it's tough to rule him out of calculations given he finished a solid third at Lingfield AW (2000m) last week. LITTLE ROSE (6) arrives unexposed and could build on a fair fourth tackling 1900m at Wolverhampton racing for a yard going well. LUNAR ROCKS (7) is not totally discounted.

Dylan Cunha has his team in good form at present and ASGAR'S CAPTAIN (1) looks to have every chance of completing a hat-trick following a commanding course and distance success earlier in the month. WESTERNESSE (2) made the frame attempting this level at York when last seen in June. Could feature if ready to go. The front-running effort of SAISONS D'OR (3) was of note finishing a neck second over course and distance. That effort can be upgraded given all others came from off the pace. Jedd O'Keefe saddled a winner at this venue on Saturday and his nine-year-old may provide the stable with another success receiving a nice draw in stall nine. A likely danger is PALLAS LORD (4) who might not be well-handicapped following a hat-trick of wins. Proved he remained in good form when second tackling track and trip a week ago. CRYPTO QUEST (1) went down by a nose attempting 1200m here last start. HOMER STOKES (5) completes the shortlist.

STALLONE (7) and MADAME FENELLA (5) finished second and third tackling the minimum trip at Southwell eleven days ago and could prove the pair to concentrate on. The former landed a second track and trip victory back in January and is taken to uphold form although the latter warrants plenty of respect from a potentially kind draw in stall eleven. BIRKENHEAD (4) holds winning course form and looks attractively weighted. MEHMO (2) is generally consistent in this class.

NOBLE CAPTAIN (5) backed up his recent course and distance victory with a good fourth here ten days ago. May return to winning ways under Jack Nicholls who is decent value for his 1.5kg claim. Dropping back to 1200m will pose no problems for the narrow Southwell (1400m) winner ABSOLUTE DREAM (2). In the mix. ELDEYAAR (3) cannot be ignored. Did well finishing second at the same venue in latest. MARIE'S JEWEL (4) might also be thereabouts dropping back to 1200m having shaped as though that journey would suit when fifth over 1600m here last outing.

The Hannah Crawford claim negates a penalty CATHERINE CHROI (1) received for winning over 1200m at Southwell. Can enhance her already strong course record for a yard in good form. AWESOME SPIRIT (2) didn't receive the clearest of passages when fifth at Chelmsford (1200m) last start. May do better here. CONFEDERATION (5) looks reasonably treated if on a going day securing a more than capable amateur jockey. DANDYS GOLD (7) finished a good third tackling track and trip two outings ago. Thereabouts once more.
