A moderate novice event that might see RADIO STAR (4) get off the mark. The Ollie Sangster trained filly was a good runner-up in a 1200m novice event at Chester before disappointing at York. Recent course and distance winner DREAM PIRATE (5) will have conditions to suit once more and can complete the double. He's preferred to EQUION (4) who won nicely at Leicester before finishing a good second tackling track and trip last month. Firmly in the mix. PLATINUM PRINCE (8) has been in good form and looks to hold strong claims after filling the runner-up spot at Bath. Southwell second ADELABELLA (12) is a previous winner when attempting the journey at this venue and cannot be ignored.

Stepping up to 2800m could suit WANDERLUST (7). The Sir Michael Stoute trained three-year-old plugged on to finish third making handicap debut at Yarmouth last month and will likely have more to offer now up in trip. ROCK N ROLL PINKIE (4) is included after finishing runner up among tougher company tackling track and trip previously. Down in grade. FEN TIGER (8) warrants each-way consideration.
