BEAT BOX (5) made it three from three since switching to the Dan Skelton yard delivering a comfortable 5.5L Newton Abbot success seven-days ago under the in-form Harry Skelton. Clearly thriving and foolish to rule out another big run up in grade. Dual hurdle winner HIDALGO DE L'ISLE (1) opened his chasing account with an easy 14L triumph tackling the trip at Newton Abbot. Rates an obvious danger in a similar contest. ISABELLA BEE (3) built upon a decent runner-up effort making her chase debut to get off the mark over course and distance with a keeping-on 3L victory. Danger. SILENT REVOLUTION (2) returned from a short break placing behind the second mentioned. Feared second-up.
