Dropping back to the minimum 1000m looks an interesting move for BRUSSELS (4) and the sizeable Aidan O'Brien two-year-old handled this track well when an excellent second in the G1 Middle Park Stakes (Gr.1) late last month. Can return to winning ways down in grade. REVIVAL POWER (1) brings plenty of early speed and must be treated with the utmost of respect after her commanding success in the G2 Flying Childers Stakes at Doncaster. BECKFORD'S FOLLY (3) didn't gain the clearest of runs when sixth of ten in the G3 Sirenia Stakes at Kempton and might do better back in trip on turf. SPICY MARG (10) could go well.

MUBASIMAH (7) picked up well from the front end to make a professional winning debut over course and distance last month. The Andrew Balding trained filly will have taken a step forward for that initial outing and can remain unbeaten with course experience expected to prove key. CALENDAR GIRL (2) quickened nicely landing a valuable sales event at Doncaster on her third start. Likeable and racing for trainer Owen Burrows this filly deserves a chance up in class. Well-bred Siyouni filly CLASSIC CUVÉE (3) landed a strong-looking Doncaster maiden delivering her second start and cannot be ignored representing top yard. COSMIC YEAR (4) perhaps hasn't performed as some might have thought following a success in the course and distance King Charles II Stakes (Listed) during May. Does hold some high-class form racing for Harry Charlton. Denied a clear passage when fourth in the 1600m G3 Thoroughbred Stakes at Goodwood in August so may show his quality back down in trip. POET MASTER (3) is one from one tackling track and trip and cannot be left out of calculations following his runner-up effort in the G3 Prix Du Pin at Longchamp last time. French raider BEAUVATIER (2) wasn't disgraced when twelfth in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup last start and is considered down in grade adopting first-time tongue-tie. ACT OF KINDNESS (1) could improve for the experience after a staying-on third debuting over course and distance late last month. The well-bred Charlie Appleby trained filly can take a step forward and put her experience to good use. John and Thady Gosden train Sioux Nation filly HATOUR (5) who looks good on paper and warrants respect. Fellow newcomer LA MER NOIRE (8) is related to plenty of winners and cannot be ignored. There is plenty like about the Dubawi filly out of a Sea The Stars mare WADOODA (11). Might provide a good showing on her debut for the leading Owen Burrows yard and warrants thought.
