RED HOT MISS (7) took a clear step forward when runner-up over this course and distance last start. She may have finished even closer after hanging in over the closing stages, and with further improvement likely, she looks ready to break through. WHAT A CLASSIC (1) faced stronger opposition when last seen and now returns from a short freshen-up. She has scope for further development and looks capable of making a bold first-up showing. SEI BELLA (4) failed to fire at her latest outing, but her previous second on turf was full of merit. The gear change and rise to 1400m could spark a return to form. ENCHANTING DREAM (2) is an unraced daughter of Querari from the Glen Kotzen yard. Related to multiple winners, she has shown enough to warrant respect on debut and any market support would be well worth following.

FLORAL KINGDOM (4) has produced two solid third-place finishes in succession, most recently over 1200m at this venue. Her closing efforts suggest the step up to 1400m will suit perfectly and she looks ready to take the next step. PEACEFUL DUCHESS (1) made up plenty of ground from the rear when fourth last start and that form has been boosted with the winner scoring again since. The extra distance and inside draw enhance her prospects considerably. CHRISTMAS ROSE (5) was slow into stride on debut but worked home encouragingly late. The rise in trip should be ideal and natural improvement is expected second time at the races. BRIGHTSUNNYDAY (3) travelled well for a long way over 1600m last start before weakening late. Blinkers are added now and, from a favourable draw, she has the ability to be competitive.

ALTA CAPITANA (2) represents the visiting Sean Tary yard and was far from disgraced over 1600m at the Vaal last time. She should derive plenty of benefit from that run and, if she adapts to the polytrack, has the credentials to return to the winner's list. SILVER SALUTE (1) produced a respectable effort over 1600m at Scottsville in her latest appearance. The form has received a boost since, and a smooth transition to this surface would see her right in contention. EBISU (5) finished off well to claim third over this distance at Kenilworth last start and remains a filly with upside. Further improvement would not surprise. FINE WINE (8) charged home from the rear to finish second over this course and distance last time. Expect similar tactics again, and she should be finishing strongly in the closing stages.

FLAT ALL WEATHER Participants #10

GOOD OMEN (6) produced a solid effort when runner-up over 1750m at Scottsville last start, racing prominently before finding only one better. The 4kg claim is a significant advantage and, if he handles the rise in distance, he looks capable of breaking through for a deserved maiden victory. CRIMSON TYPHOON (2) took a step forward when finishing third over this course and distance last time, closing off her race with purpose. A repeat of that performance would see her right in the finish. ACTION THRILLER (3) was competitive over 1600m here at his latest outing and shaped as though a longer trip would suit. The move to 2000m looks a positive and he remains one with upside. GIMME THE TRUTH (9) finished just half a length behind the top pick last start but meets that rival on less favourable weight terms this time, which may make it difficult to reverse the result. DAWN SURPRISE (3) continues to race with great consistency and was only narrowly denied over this course and distance last time after setting the pace. Her record at the track and trip is excellent, and another bold front-running effort looks likely. THOUGHT CONTROL (8) had little luck at the start in her latest outing, giving away valuable ground before finishing off strongly. A cleaner beginning would see her right in the finish. LADY GODIVA (4) performed with credit in the Grade 3 Tote Strelitzia Stakes last time and the form has been strengthened since. THE SPECIALIST (2) acquitted himself well in the Grade 2 TAB Senor Santa Stakes last start and the strength of that form has since been reinforced. His record at this distance is excellent, featuring three wins and multiple placings, and if he handles the polytrack he looks the horse to beat. WHAT A FORTUNE (8) continues to perform consistently and receives valuable assistance from a 2.5kg apprentice claim. With the right run in transit, he shapes as a leading contender for the minor honours and could easily go one better. THISISWHATITMEANS (6) is worth forgiving for his latest effort after being reported not to have been striding out freely. The break since that run may have refreshed him, and his proven suitability to this course and distance makes him a serious threat. DIANI (5) produced a solid third-place finish over 1600m last time and now drops back in trip. If he stays within striking range turning for home, he has the ability to make his presence felt in the finish.

GOLDEN ANGEL (3) enjoyed a perfect run when scoring over this course and distance last time and did the job well. She rises slightly in the weights, but meets a similar field and, from a favourable draw, looks capable of going back-to-back. LAST MARGARITA (4) broke through for her maiden victory at attractive odds over 1200m here last start. The step up to a mile appears suitable, and with just 52kg to carry, she has the scope to measure up again. K M V RETROFIT (2) was far from disgraced over 1400m at this venue last time and now drops in class. On her better form, she is capable of featuring prominently and should not be overlooked. ROY'S GRACE (1) finished well behind the top pick in their latest meeting but enjoys a 3kg swing in the weights today. That advantage should see her finish much closer, and she can be competitive for the minor placings.

PONGOLA (6) produced a strong first-up effort over 1400m when narrowly denied by The Gliding Fish after racing prominently throughout. He should derive plenty of benefit from that run and, with the Michael Roberts-Rachel Venniker combination in excellent form, looks well placed to go one better. MOUNTAINSOFTHEMOON (2) finished strongly to claim second over this course and distance last start, and the form has been boosted with the winner scoring again since. She is racing consistently and can make her presence felt against the males. GOT THE WORD (4) caught the eye when closing off nicely for fourth over 1200m last time. The favourable draw and the retention of Anaas Mosaheb are positives, and he shapes as a genuine contender. MAC HARDY (5) finished just behind the third pick at their latest meeting and now meets that rival slightly better at the weights. There should be little between them again, and he has claims of finishing in the placings.
